In these books a serious effort has been made to discuss both sacred and secular issues with their scientific and philosophical connotations the realities of human life both in material and metaphysical perception have been presented comprising the conceptual and speculative conceptions the existence of god and the purpose and nature of life have been elaborated with biblical scientific and philosophical variations when and where necessary the correct perception is imperative as it can attain strong belief in god and thus can help appreciate the meaning and purpose of life on occasions it also goes beyond the planks of science and philosophy on which is based the general perception of secularists and atheists there are some fundamental connotations which form the basic premise of this conception

The author has ventured to establish that modernism in islam is not an anathema and modernity does not pose a challenge a creative response is always possible with thoughtful analysis and deep insight the author makes it clear that the quru2019an is not a book of thoughtless concern and islam is not a religion of static stereotypes With consistency of conception and grace of expression the prosaic situations can be turned into effective affirmations with the excellence of language and diction a vision extends toward capturing the movements of the cosmos as contained in the quru2019an

This is an imperative that affirms the vision and vitality of the quru2019an and extends beyond science and philosophy of modern world it is also important to understand the life and thought of islam and its civilization those whose minds are nurtured on western thought and those whose mindsets are divorced of the least streaks of modernism will be equally guided by the balanced and progressive conception of the quru2019an

The above books make the elucidation of the quru2019an easier for the benefit of mankind in general and especially for those who are egocentric and dogmatists in their mindsets although altering the intellectual and conceptual connotations especially when they are entrenched in narrow confines is an exceedingly difficult task yet making an efforts and helping others to appreciate the essence of the quru2019an could not be a futile exercise in the current contaminated environments
